I enjoyed this disc enormously. Neither orchestra is technically flawless but both play extremely well for Szell and the minor blemishes, such as they are, are more than offset by the sense of spirit in both performances. As for Szell, he's on excellent form here, conducting two excellent and charismatic performances.

I'm delighted that these two performances have been made available on CD. Since the presentation standards are up to Audite's usual high standards, which enhances the appeal of this release, this disc is a very enticing proposition.
