

Yehudi Menuhin plays Tchaikovsky: Violin Concerto, Mozart: Violin Concerto K 218 & Bach: Chaconne from Partita No. 2

aud 95.588

EAN: 4022143955883

Gramophone (2009.04.01)

Not long after the war's end and the terrible revelations that followed, at least two great Jewish violinists performed in Germany, including Menuhin whose slightly shaky 1949 Tchaikovsky Concerto under Ferenc Fricsay has just reappeared on Audite coupled with an often radiant Mozart K218 (Karl Böhm, 1951) and an unusually intense Bach Chaconne from 1948.