American Record Guide (2020.11.01)

This is an orchestra of about 35 string players from the Balkan region. They mostly play in orchestras in Serbia, Croatia, Slovenia, and so forth—the former Yugoslavia. They have a nice Slavic sound that suits the music well, and their conductor (and founder in 2007) is sensitive and expressive. I suppose we all have recordings of these wonderful pieces; but if they have not been played in a while and the pieces seem too familiar, let me recommend these expressive performances—sweet, romantic, never just routine.
